With April showers behind us and May flowers starting to bloom, warm weather is finally here. With the arrival of warmer weather, more people, including children will be playing outdoors and may be exposed to tick bites. Ticks are active in our area any time the temperature is over 40 degrees Fahrenheit. May is National Lyme Disease Awareness Month and I am sharing information on tick bites, prevention, and Lyme disease.

It is predicted to be an above-average year for ticks in 2021 coupled with the average number of reported cases having more than doubled over the past 10 years making Wisconsin one of the nation's hot spots for this growing concern. Ticks can be dangerous, namely, the deer tick, because it can carry Lyme's disease.

Lyme disease is an infection caused by the bacteria Borrelia burgdorferi from the bite of an infected deer tick, which is much smaller than the tick commonly found on dogs. Generally, the tick needs to stay attached for 36 to 48 hours to transmit the disease-causing bacteria. Lyme disease isn't spread from person to person, so you can't get it from someone who has it. You may not realize that you've been bitten by an infected deer tick because it's so small.

Early symptoms of Lyme's disease can include the infamous "bull's-eye" rash at the bite site, although a rash is not always present. You may also have flu-like symptoms, such as fever, chills, tiredness, and muscle or joint aches. People can develop a stiff neck, Bell's Palsy (a temporary paralysis usually impacting one side of the face), and if left untreated neurological and cardiac complications that can become life-threatening. Early detection and prompt treatment with prescription antibiotics can help you recover completely from Lyme disease.

Is there a tick on you? Do a tick check!

Here's where to look:

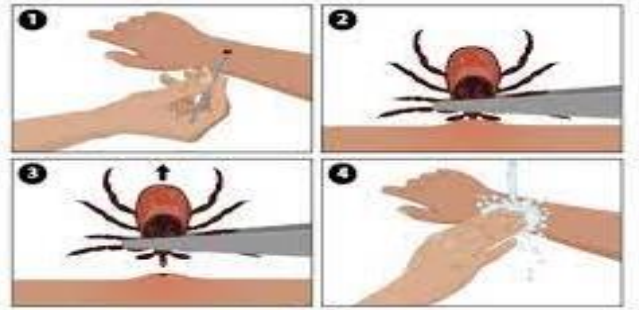

Ticks are tiny, so look for new "freckles." These are actual size:

Prevention is the best policy!

- Protective clothing includes long-sleeved shirts tucked into pants and long pants, tucked into socks or boots. Light-colored clothing makes it easier to see a tick before it bites.
- Stay on paths if possible, away from high grass or brush.
- Wear insect repellents especially designed to repel ticks. Most contain the chemical DEET. The CDC states DEET is safe and effective, but don't apply it to a child's face or hands.
- Use care with pets and check them, because they can bring ticks into the house.
- Daily tick checks are critical! Ticks can attach to any part of the body but are often found in hard-to-see areas, such as: behind the knees, armpits, scalp, in or around the ears, inside the belly button, groin, and between the toes. Shower as soon as possible after coming inside.

Tick removal: The attached ticks should be removed promptly, as removal within 36 hours can reduce transmission rates. Folk remedies for tick removal (petroleum jelly, nail polish, hot match) tend to be ineffective and may increase the risk of infection since it can cause the tick to regurgitate infected material into the human body. The recommended method is to simply pull the tick straight out with fine-tipped tweezers, gripping as close to the skin as possible so you remove the tick's head. Do not twist as this can cause the mouthparts to break off and stay in the skin. After removing the tick, use rubbing alcohol to clean and disinfect the bite site and wash hands. Visit your doctor if you have a rash or fever within 30 days of removing a tick or after possible tick exposure.

Tick control can decrease the number of ticks in your living environment by mowing the grass short, cleaning up brush and leaf litter, elevating woodpiles, using deer fencing, creating a 3' barrier of wood chips between your lawn and any wooded areas, and place play equipment in a sunny location. There is no better way to enjoy the warm weather than spending time outdoors, especially when done safely. I hope that you are all able to enjoy what Wisconsin outdoors has to offer.

Immunization Reminder:

This is a reminder that 4K, K, and 5th-grade students have state-required immunizations to receive before the 2021-2022 school year. If your student is behind on their immunizations or is due to receive them, please call your child's medical provider or local Health Department (if you do not have private insurance) to make an appointment soon and avoid the late summer rush. If you have questions about your child's immunization record please contact Katie Breitlow breitlowk@rsdwi.org or your medical provider.

Yours in health,

Randolph Elementary School - Ms. Christy Fay

Our Awesome Authors for March did such a great job of reading their stories, Mrs. Davidson is planning to have another online Awesome Authors event at the end of April to showcase more of our talented student work on the district Facebook page. We look forward to next school year when we are hoping to gather once again to hear students read their stories in person.

Once again, students in grades 3-8 are in the process of taking the Wisconsin Forward Exam. Results will be shared with families in the Fall. Please contact your child's teacher or me with any questions about the Forward Exam.

Summer school registration will be online again this year and is open for course selection. Please contact the elementary office if you have questions about how to fill out the online registration form. For students entering grades K-8, enrichment classes will take place June 7-18 from 8:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m. Summer school jumpstart reading, writing, and math is open to all students entering grades 4K-8 and will take place August 2-13 from 8:00 a.m. - 12:00 p.m. Free breakfast will be offered and sack lunches will be available for pick up as students leave summer school at noon.

Week of the Young Child

Last week was the Week of the Young Child. The purpose of this week is to focus on the needs of young children and their families. It's also a time to recognize the early childhood programs & services that meet those needs.

Typically, our elementary school invites the community in for our annual Children's Festival. With that not being possible this year, several elementary classes have written letters of thanks or made class projects to say thanks to community groups who have supported our Village of Randolph during the pandemic.
