Randolph Elementary Families-

With the start of second semester, students and staff are working hard and it shows in daily work, on report cards, and in the assessments students are taking. If you have any questions about how your child is progressing in school, please feel free to reach out to your child's teacher. Some families will be invited in on February 17th for parent teacher conferences. If you wish to have a conference, please let your child's teacher know and we will get you scheduled.

We are proud of our respectful, responsible, safe and kind learners in Randolph. One way students show their responsibility is by being in class on time each morning. I know it is warm and comfy under the blankets on these February mornings. However, our students are expected to be in class ready to learn by 8:05 a.m. each day. Some students are kicking the habit of tardiness. However, some students are still arriving at school after the morning bell. If your student is one who arrives late, please encourage him or her to set an alarm a bit earlier so he/she does not miss out on the first five to ten minutes of instruction. Although it may not seem like much, that is the time each day that teachers set the tone for the day as well as getting students organized and prepared for a full day of learning. Please encourage your child to be at school by 8:00 a.m.

As always, please call or email if you have questions, concerns or feedback about your child's learning experience this school year. We value your feedback and look forward to partnering with you in service to the children of Randolph.

Regards,

Christy Fay
Elementary Principal

*Charlie Check First from the Elementary
Safety Kids Curriculum*

In January, kindergarten through fifth grade students have been focusing on their personal safety skills in guidance class. All classes were reminded of Charlie Check First's #1 Safety Rule: Check First Before You Go Anywhere With Anyone! Topics covered in these safety classes included the importance of checking with the adult taking care of you, and what to do if you are ever separated from your buddy. Students also discussed observation skills and how we can be "wise with our eyes" to stay safe. Being home alone and navigating through emergency situations were a part of the conversation as well. Lastly, students went over some examples in which their Power NO should be used so they can be assertive and remain safe at all times.

These are some heavy topics that may bring up a variety of emotions with your children. During these lessons, it was expressed that this material is talked about so they feel prepared and empowered, rather than scared. Over the month of January, they should have brought home handouts giving a summary of the skills we covered. If you have not seen these handouts, or have any other questions or concerns, please do not hesitate to reach out!

Next month, the PBIS theme will be self discipline. In addition to discussing the definition of this term, elementary students will be completing their Career Exploration unit in guidance class. Every child has a portfolio folder kept in my office that stores all of their career exploration activities until it is handed to them during their senior year of high school. It is really neat to see their collection of hard work accumulate over the years!

Sixth graders are halfway through their Substance Abuse and Prevention Unit, and have been discussing how addiction to certain drugs can affect their physical and mental health, relationships, and future aspirations. Students also considered how their decision making skills may affect their career choices and planning while completing their third Xello lesson. February will lead to 6th grade finishing both their Substance Abuse and Prevention Unit and their online career portfolio on Xello.

Teen Dating Violence – Let’s Talk About It

- An article from Sarah Campbell, Youth Advocate and Educator - Hope House of South Central Wisconsin

<https://docs.google.com/document/d/1zaNLh517YRvZFCpG0ipCfakFgzaFrTXCsBB2S-NVhMY/edit?usp=sharing>

This February is Teen Dating Violence Awareness Month and Love is Respect's national theme this year is Talk About It. At Hope House, our education team talks to middle and high school students throughout the year about healthy dating relationships, warning signs of abuse and how to get support for yourself or a loved one. While we talk about it frequently, teens and the people in their lives are often not having these types of conversations. According to the national organization One Love, "while 80% of teenagers think verbal abuse is a serious issue for people their age, only 33% of teens who were in an abusive relationship ever told anyone about the abuse." There are many reasons a teenager may not want to disclose abuse, one of them may be for fear they won't be believed or not getting the support they need. People in a teenager's life can help facilitate change by encouraging conversations on healthy and unhealthy relationships, offering support related to a partner's concerning behavior, and sharing resources.

For TDVAM this year, One Love suggests inviting students to share what is and what isn't love by using the hashtags, #thatslove #thatsnotlove. This example is one way to start talking about and sharing important messages of healthy relationship traits and also red flags. Below are some examples from Hope House:

- Asking before acting and respecting the answer. #thatslove
- Pressuring, guiltig, manipulating or forcing your partner to do something they aren't comfortable with. #thatsnotlove
- Respecting how your partner chooses to identify and express themselves. #thatslove
- Asking about topics that interest them and listening when they talk about them. #thatslove
- Your partner putting down or making hurtful comments about you, your friends, your interests or your hobbies #thatsnotlove
- Encouraging and supporting your partner. #thatslove
- Your partner telling you you're too sensitive, making things up or calling you crazy when you express concern about how they treat you. #thatsnotlove

We hope that you'll share these examples or your own ideas of #thatslove and #thatsnotlove on your social media platforms to start normalizing conversations around teen dating violence and as a conversation starter with the teens in your life. If you are a teen, you can use these as a way to start conversations with your friends, family or maybe even someone you love who you are concerned about. Another way to start a conversation, and show your support for those experiencing dating violence, is to wear orange on February 8th. For more tips on how to show support for the teens in your life this February, visit, Love is Respect's February events calendar and check out their Action Guide.

Hope House wants you to know that everyone deserves to be respected and valued in their relationships. If you or someone you know has been impacted by dating violence, you can contact Hope House at our 24/7 confidential helpline: 1-800-584-6790. Advocates are here to listen, believe, provide support and resources, plan for your safety, talk through your options, help you prepare to tell others if you'd like, and discuss ways to take care of yourself. Nurses News - Free At-Home COVID 19 Tests

- Katie Breitlow, School RN

Every home in the United States is now eligible to order four free at-home COVID-19 rapid antigen tests. Orders usually ship in 7-12 days. These tests give results within 30 minutes, with no lab drop-off required.

Self-tests can be taken at home or anywhere, are easy to use, and produce rapid results. You can use self-tests, regardless of vaccination status, or whether or not you have symptoms. Follow all the manufacturer's instructions for performing the test.

It is super easy and quick to order! Click HERE to Order Test Kits or visit <https://www.covidtests.gov/>

As a strategy to work around the shortage of rapid antigen test kits within our school, RSD will allow families who have at-home test kits to bring them to school so that the school nurse or designated staff can use that test kit to determine results. These results will then get uploaded into the Wisconsin database system. Bringing and using the test kit to the school with school staff collecting the sample makes it an accepted result as DHS still does not recommend accepting the result of an un-proctored COVID test done at home.

RSD will accept the results of COVID home test kits if testing supplies are brought to school and designated staff collects the sample. Thank you for helping us navigate through our COVID-testing supply shortage!

2022-2023 Full-Time Open Enrollment Regular Application Period for Wisconsin Public Schools

INFORMATION FOR PARENTS

You may apply for open enrollment from February 7-April 29, 2022.

What is Public School Open Enrollment?

Wisconsin's public school open enrollment program allows parents to apply for their children to attend a school district other than the one in which they live. Applications may be submitted to up to three nonresident school districts if the pupil wishes to attend a brick and mortar school. There are no limitations to the number of open enrollment applications that can be submitted to a virtual charter school.

How and when may parents apply?

The open enrollment regular application period for the 2022-23 school year is from February 7-April 29, 2022. The application period closes at 4:00 p.m. on April 29, 2022. Late applications will not be accepted for any reason.

Parents may apply online at <https://dpi.wi.gov/oe>.

Can I apply to a virtual charter school under open enrollment?

A pupil may only open enroll to an online/virtual school if: (1) the school has been created as a virtual charter school that meets the requirements of the charter school law [Wis. Stats. 118.40 (8)] or (2) the pupil is required to physically attend school on a regular basis in a school located in the nonresident school district on the days that school is in session. Other important things to know about applying to virtual charter schools:

- A virtual charter school is not homeschooling. Pupils attending virtual charter schools are public school pupils.
- You must know the nonresident school district in which the virtual charter school is located.
- You must know your resident school district to apply.
- A list of virtual charter schools may be found at <https://dpi.wi.gov/parental-education-options/charter-schools/virtual-charter-schools>.

Can parents appeal if an application is denied?

Parents whose applications are denied may appeal to the DPI within 30 days of the denial. State law requires the DPI to uphold the school district's decision unless DPI finds that the decision was arbitrary or unreasonable. The DPI's decision may be appealed to circuit court.

Who may participate in open enrollment?

Pupils in kindergarten to grade 12 may apply to participate in open enrollment.

Open enrollment for prekindergarten, four-year-old kindergarten and early childhood education is limited. Parents should call their resident school districts to find out if their preschool-aged children qualify for open enrollment.

Can an application be rejected?

Nonresident school districts may deny an application if regular or special education space is not available for the pupil; special education or related services are not available; or if the pupil has been referred for a special education evaluation but has not yet been evaluated. Nonresident school districts may also deny an application if the pupil has been expelled during the current or preceding two years for certain violent conduct or if the pupil was habitually truant from the nonresident school district during any semester in the current or previous school year.

If there are more applications than spaces, pupils must be selected randomly, after giving preference to pupils already attending school in the nonresident school district and siblings of currently-attending pupils.

Some school districts establish waiting lists to fill unused spaces, but others do not.

Can a resident district prevent a pupil from leaving?

A resident district can deny a pupil's application for an invalid application (early or late application or missing information), ineligibility due to age (too young or too old), or if the resident district does not offer the same type of prekindergarten, four-year-old kindergarten, or early childhood program as the nonresident district or the pupil is not eligible for the program in the resident district. These are also reasons that a nonresident district can deny an application.

Must pupils reapply every year?

Once a pupil is accepted into a nonresident school district, the pupil may continue to attend that district without reapplication except that:

- The nonresident district may require a pupil to reapply one time—at the beginning of middle school, junior high or high school.
- A pupil may be returned to the resident school district if the special education required in a new or revised IEP is not available in the nonresident district or there is no space.
- A pupil who has become habitually truant in the nonresident district may be returned to the resident district.

Is there a cost for parents to participate in the open enrollment program?

There is no tuition cost to parents for participation in open enrollment. Parents of open enrolled pupils may be charged the same fees as resident pupils.

Who is responsible for transportation?

Parents are responsible for transporting their children to and from school.

If transportation is required in the IEP for a child with a disability, it must be provided by the nonresident district.

School districts may provide transportation to open enrollment pupils if they wish. Usually, if transportation is provided, parents must transport the pupil to a location in the nonresident district.

Low-income parents may apply to the DPI at the end of the school year for partial reimbursement of their transportation costs.

Can a parent select a specific school in the pupil's nonresident school district?

Yes. A parent may request a specific school or program in the nonresident district. However, assignment to the requested school or program is not guaranteed and your pupil may be assigned to a different school other than the one requested. It is up to each nonresident district to determine a pupil's school assignment.

Can an open enrolled pupil participate in sports and other extra-curricular activities in the nonresident school district?

Open enrolled pupils have the same rights and responsibilities as resident pupils.

Inter-scholastic athletics are governed by the Wisconsin Interscholastic Athletic Association (WIAA), which has rules concerning transfer pupils. Parents should check with the school district's athletic director about eligibility.

IMPORTANT OPEN ENROLLMENT DATES

February 7 - April 29, 2022

Parents must submit applications online or directly to the nonresident school district.

June 10, 2022

Nonresident school districts must send notices of approval or denial via US mail or email. If the application is approved, the school district must notify the parents of the specific school or program to which the pupil is assigned. If the application is denied, parents have 30 days to file an appeal.

June 17, 2022

Resident districts must notify applicants if the application is denied. If the application is denied, parents have 30 days to file an appeal.

June 24, 2022

Parents of accepted applicants must notify the nonresident district if the pupil will attend the nonresident district in the 2022-23 school year. If the parent fails to make this notification, the nonresident district may refuse to allow the pupil to attend the district.

National School Counseling Week

February 7-11, 2022

National School Counseling Week highlights the tremendous impact school counselors can have in helping students achieve school success and plan for a career.

The special week recognizes school counselors and the comprehensive programs they implement to support Wisconsin students.

School counselors are actively engaged in helping students examine their abilities, strengths, interests and talents. They work in partnership with parents as they encounter the challenges of raising children in today's world, continuously focusing on positive ways to enhance students' academic, career and social/emotional development. School counselors work with teachers and other educators to provide an educational system where students can realize their potential and set healthy, realistic and optimistic aspirations for themselves. They are certified, experienced educators with a master's degree in school counseling. The combination of their training and experience makes them an integral part of the total educational program.

Thank you, Ms. Maddie and Mrs. Medema for all that you do for Randolph School District students.

Wisconsin School Bus Driver Appreciation Week

February 14-18, 2022

This commemorative week recognizes all school transportation personnel who are involved in the highest standards of safe practices to assure the protection of their passengers, our state's most precious cargo. The Wisconsin School Bus Association (WSBA), through its Board of Directors, pledges its full and dedicated cooperation with the Department of Transportation's Office of Transportation Safety along with many other organizations in promoting public awareness of the importance of school bus transportation.

In Wisconsin, there are over 12,000 school buses driven by more than 15,000 school bus drivers who safely transport more than 600,000 students to and from school each school day and travel nearly 60 million miles a year.

During these continued unprecedented times, WSBA recognizes and appreciates evermore the dedication and care each school bus driver demonstrates to students every day.

Thank you to each of our dedicated RSD bus drivers for your continued commitment to ensuring the safety of our students.

RSD would like to take this opportunity to remind our community of the importance of yielding to buses and pedestrians.
